FEBRUARY
EAST BRIGHTON REVIEW

The results are in for the first golf day of the year – East Brighton – February!!

2

With a week of torrential rain running up to East Brighton, there were 24 nervous golfers who turned up on Friday.

They needn't have worried, as Captain Pritch managed to find a gap in the weather, with a cold, windy but dry day making for tough but decent playing conditions.

Another complex team competition was briefed out to the members, and 6 x 4-balls set off on their way.

The bookie had seen plenty of action, with Guiley and Target backed into favourites.

As it played out, the punters got it bang on, as a close battle played out for the green jacket, along with the added kudos of picking up the Benji's Bogey Trophy!!

Jez hits the Target !!

In an incredibly tight finish, we had a 4-way tie at the top on 35pts. The handicapper, sunning himself in SA, was suitably impressed with his work.

Colesy was the big loser, finishing fourth on countback, with his cut-no-prize meaning he is off 9 next time out!!

In the first group out, Renno was the first to post 35pts, eventually good enough to secure 2nd place, and in the final group, Guiley lost out to Target in a nailbiter, eventually finishing 3rd.

So Target, with the best back 6, picked up the green jacket, and the newly recycled Benji's Bogey Trophy along with a bottle of fizz, courtesy of Benji.

Well done Jez 😊

At the other end of the table, Hooks seems happy to have won something, while I am clearly singing his praises 😊
Taken in good spirit. Well done Brian!!

In the team competition, Blair, Colesy, Oggie and Del grabbed the vino.
Your skipper will be looking for a slightly less complicated format for the next golf day, but well-done gents in fighting off the quality 3-ball of Target, Guiley, Wackers plus Hooks into second place.
Nearest the pins were won by Blair (cash) and Guiley, (personalised engraved tankard)
